Here's how The Leader's Edge Treasure Chest Works:

- The Leadership Treasure Chest is updated constantly with new tools, products, information and inspiration. An email notice will be sent to you monthly with a summary of new items added to the Leader's Edge Treasure Chest.
- As a registered member to The Leader's Edge Treasure Chest you will have unlimited access to the tools, products, information and inspiration.
- You are free to download any of the tools, products, information and inspiration as many times as you like.
- Prior month's tools, products and information will remain in the Leadership Treasure Chest.
- An annual membership fee will be charged to access the Leader's Edge Treasure Chest for one year
- Renewing the annual membership is automatic. To avoid automatic renewal, members must send an email of cancellation to info@LeadersEdge360.com a minimum of 14 days prior to your anniversary date.
- There are no cancellations or refunds to the annual membership fee - we want to avoid someone downloading a year's supply of tools, products, information and inspiration in a week then asking for a refund - no cancellations or refunds sorry.
- Members will receive a password to access the Leader's Edge Treasure Chest - passwords may change throughout the life of an annual membership and members will be notified by email. Passwords are not to be shared with others - in the event of violation, memberships of violators will be revoked.
- Members, who cannot find what they are looking for, can leave requests for information and we will place it in the Leadership Treasure Chest as soon as practical.
